

SOCIAL DISORGANIZATION

MS BUSHRA NAZIR KARJIKAR

CLINICAL INSTRUCTOR

DEPT COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING

MES COLLEGE OF NURSING

GHANEKHUNT LOTE

SOCIAL DISORGANIZATION

INTRODUCTION

- Social disorganisation is a process exactly opposite to the Social Organisation.

DEFINITION

- Social disorganization is a disturbance of harmonious relationship between various part of culture .
 - _ Ogburn and Nimkoff
- Social disorganisation is disturbance in the patterns and mechanism of human relationship.
 - _ R .E. I. Faris

CAUSES OF SOCIAL DISORGANIZATION

- In fact , no society is completely organized.
- Some disorganization is always present in society.
- They are a multiple factor that may causes social organisation.

FACTORS

- Geographical factor or natural calamities
- Biological factor
- Psychological factor
- Political factor
- Social factor
- Technological factor
- Disparity about social role
- Violating the rule of social control
- Improper division of labour

- ROLE OF NURSE IN SOCIAL DISORGANIZATION

- SUMMARY

• THANK YOU 😊